Verse 2:

As a boy in the clovers
Could you peer above the fence?
Still a world laid in waiting
When the time had come, you went

Chorus 2:

As the swells break over, man the ropes
Holding to our blessed
Duty of hope

Verse 3:

From the sea of high waters
That would overcome our cheer
We will make land tomorrow
Having settled every fear

And give praise to the maker
For He made us how we are
We were pale and unsteady
Now we journey wide and far

Chorus 2:

Ever follows peace after the storm
We are charted to our promised home
Off to God's horizon
Heave ho!
